Year 4 Faith Visit to the Synagogue

The Synagogue was beautiful! Our amazing guide was full of information. We spent time looking around this beautiful building with its stunning stained glass windows as well as its telling of the history of the Jewish community in Birmingham as well as the UK. (Year 4 child)

Educational visits to places of worship are an integral part of pupils' spiritual development and bring a sense of awe and wonder into their lives.

These visits form an important part of the citizenship/PSHE curriculum and give pupils an insight into how religion influences individuals, families, communities and cultures.

Punjabi spelling bee

As with any language we urge parents to understand that importance of the Punjabi alphabet. The individual letters 'akhar' are the building blocks of learning the language.

Thank you for all your support and revising for today's Spelling Bee.

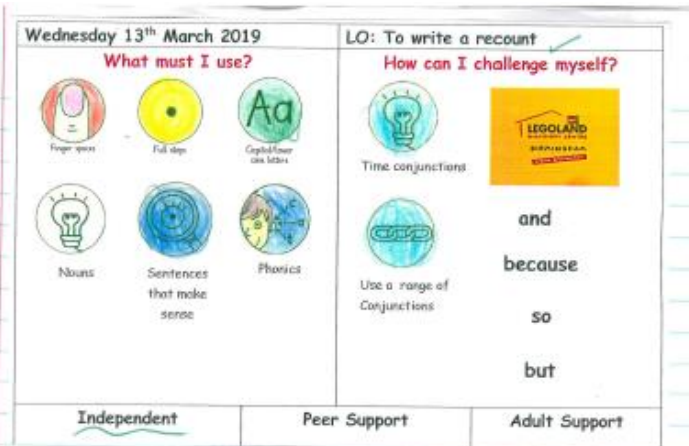

Experts say that children who learn a language before their teenage years are more likely than older learners to achieve native-like pronunciation. Furthermore, research has found that kids have an ability to acquire the rules of any language - an ability that disappears by adulthood.

Our Year 1 pupils visited Legoland Discovery Centre in Birmingham last week and had a fantastic time.

They were engaged in activities and incorporated much of their learning into their school work this week.

Lego is a wonderful resource and a worthwhile purchase. It can be used to encourage your child to make up stories about their LEGO creations. They could film a scene to create a stop motion or short film of their tale. Or they could invent an adventure in which they're the star and create a LEGO avatar.

On Tuesday I went to Legoland Discovery centre in Birmingham. First I got on a big green bus and I sat next to Amaan. Then I fastened my sea belt. Next I arrived at Legoland and I felt excited and happy. Then I explored mini Land and I saw some cool models made out of Lego. After that I watched a 4D movie and I got soaking wet in the cinema and it was windy to. I went to play and I had to take my shoes off so I went to the workshop and I went on the iPads and I built a person and a person and I put...
