

Teacher Name: Mrs Yasmin Sidhu

School: Nishkam High School Birmingham

Role: Teacher of Food Preparation and Nutrition and Head of Year

My route into teaching:

After studying Consumer Studies at University of Ulster in Portrush, I moved to Liverpool to complete my PGCE at John Moore's University.

Why I love my job:

Working with young people is a joy; every day is different and watching students progress is a pleasure. In practical lessons, student arrive with raw ingredients and leave with a delicious dish, I love seeing the pride on their faces when they see their finished product.

Why Nishkam:

Nishkam is a very special place to work, it is much more than a job and a school. I am very privileged to work with a fantastic group of colleagues and students in a beautiful environment that I am very proud of.

Next steps for me:

I hope to continue to share my love of food with the wonderful students of Nishkam and inspire them to get creative in the kitchen.
