

Teacher Name: Grace Gull

School: Nishkam Primary School Wolverhampton

Subject/class: Year 2 Class Teacher, Music Lead, Key Stage 1 Phase Lead

My route into teaching: I always loved being at school and I vividly remember saying when I was 5 years old that I wanted to be a teacher, and here I am! During my time at University I was lucky enough to complete my BA (Hons) in Musical Theatre at Wolverhampton University which allowed me to really express my creativity and carry on developing my musical skills. Throughout my undergraduate course, I spent time working with children within music at various different places. Following my degree, I completed my PGCE at Birmingham City University which I thoroughly enjoyed before coming to begin my teaching career at Nishkam Primary School in Wolverhampton.

Why I love my job: I love my job because you can honestly say that no day is the same! I love seeing the joy the children have when they finally master a concept that they've been finding particularly tricky. I also love exploring creativity through the arts with the children.

Why Nishkam: I was lucky enough to complete my first placement during my PGCE at Nishkam Primary School in Birmingham and I fell in love with Nishkam and the ethos behind the school. The values and virtues based education is revolutionary at Nishkam and I knew I wanted to work in a Nishkam school!

Next steps for me: Having just taken up the post of Key Stage 1 Phase Lead I will be spending time getting to grips with this new challenge. I can't wait to continue growing the provision for both the children in Key Stage 1 and Music across the school. Having watched Nishkam grow over the last 6 years, I can't wait to see what else we can achieve at Nishkam Primary School in Wolverhampton.
