

Cleanliness

N1—Children understand the importance of hand-washing and learn to do this independently.
N2— Children are taught how to respect their classroom and can tidy up effectively.
REC- Children are able to manage their belongings and keep them organised.

Compassion

N1— Children can recognise and name the feelings "happy", "sad", "angry" and "scared"
N2— Children can recognise some feelings in others, e.g. sadness, happiness
REC- Children are able to say why someone may be feeling a certain way.

Courtesy

N1—Children learn to say please and thank you.
N2— Children say please and thank you and can ask for things politely.
REC- Children are able to demonstrate courtesy throughout the day e.g. holding doors open for others, picking up someone else's belongings.

Peacefulness

N1—Children learn to sit quietly when asked.
N2— Children are able to be calm when directed and are learning to use a quieter voice inside.
REC- Children are able to take part in simple yoga and mindfulness sessions.

Creativity

N1—Children learn to explore the environment and choose where to play.
N2— Children select a range of activities and attempt them independently.
REC- Children are able to use a range of resources to express themselves through art, music, dance etc.

Patience

N1—Children learn to wait for things, e.g. lunch
N2— Children are able to wait during transitions and are learning to let others take turns with toys.
REC- Children are able to wait their turn in various situations e.g. queuing for snack, sharing an answer with the class and having a turn at a game.

Forgiveness

N1—Children learn to say sorry if they have upset someone.
N2— Children are able to say sorry and resolve a conflict with adult support.
REC- Children are able to forgive others if they have upset them.

Kindness

N1—Children learn to be kind to others by not pushing in or taking toys.
N2— Children are able to say kind things to others and understand how it feels to spread kindness.
REC- Children are able to demonstrate kindness to others—not just their close friends.

Honesty

N1—Children learn to tell an adult if they have done something they shouldn't.
N2— Children know that they must always tell the truth.
REC- Children are able to be honest even when they are worried about the outcome.

Helpfulness

N1—Children learn to tidy up the Nursery when asked.
N2— Children tidy up independently and help the younger children put things away.
REC- Children are able to offer help to other children and staff when they feel they can.

